

Flatmates

Billy and Jessica share a flat together. Look at the following phrases and guess which one of them said them:

“ I am used to watching all the property programmes now.”

“ I am getting used to sharing the bathroom, but sometimes it is still difficult.

“ I am definitely used to compromising because the atmosphere is horrible if we don't.”

“ I am just getting used to seeing all the cups and dishes in the sink in the morning.”

“ I am used to the noise, it's the quiet that bothers me now!”

“ I am getting used to the mess, but if my mother came over, I would clean up immediately.”

“ I will never get used to seeing dirty socks on the kitchen floor.”

“ I will never get used to hairs on the kitchen floor and in the living room.”
